Permission for Recognition

The Leon County Reading Council is proud to recognize student achievement in Creative Writing! We want to recognize our winners in the local media, on our web site, and in a published booklet to be available only to family, friends, and local schools. To insure the safety of students, we will identify winning students by first name and school only.

Please visit the Leon County Reading Council's website at <http://leoncountyreadingcouncil.weebly.com> for information TBA on the Awards Ceremony.

IMPORTANT: If you DO NOT want your child's story shared in any of the following formats, you must initial below.

My child:

- _____ May NOT have his/her first name and school recognized as a winner on the Reading Council web site.
- _____ May NOT have his/her story published in a printed booklet with school and first name only.
- _____ May NOT have his/her photograph taken and used in any media with first name and school only.
- _____ May NOT have his/her first name and school identified as a winner in the Tallahassee Democrat.
